Summer library programs wrapped in Drayton Valley on August 22 with activities for younger children and a visit by Kompany Family Theatre, who led older children in games, songs and other activities in the park across from the Civic Centre.

Kompany Family Theatre is the performing company of Kompany Theatre Artists Society, a registered not-for-profit society in Alberta and official Canadian Charitable Organization operating in and around Edmonton. They hire professional theatre artists and welcome volunteers and supporters in their quest to create and bring quality theatre to young audiences and families.

A member of Kompany Theatre was giving out bundles of energy to the kids. CATHY WEETMAN

Some of the food offered for a ticket included poutine, pretzels, ice cream, lasagna, spring rolls, pulled pork sandwich on a bun and ice cream. For the children, there was a bubble gum machine, face painting and tattoo art, visits from Princess Elsa, Batman and Sparky the Fire Dog.

Later in the evening, the Richard Woodman Band entertained the crowd for a couple of hours as well.

The event was organized by the Drayton Valley Community Foundation

There were lots of activities for children, including a gumball machine.
