NEW for our 24th Annual Battle of the Books, 2019

COSTUMES – We are encouraging teams to come up with their own group look related to their team name! More details to come...

GUEST AUTHOR – Iain Reading, author of Dragon of the Month Club will be a guest judge and do a presentation for all the participants! There will be draws for some of his prizes and copies of his book will be available to purchase.

ONLINE REGISTRATION – Online registration will be available through our website on or by Monday, March 18th.

READING TIME – Participants will have longer to read the books this year! All books have been ordered and will be delivered to schools on or by March 15th, 2019.

VARIETY OF BOOKS – We have changed some of the criteria for selecting our titles. Books will be a variety of genres, lengths and reading levels. They include both fiction and non-fiction. Book selection includes more recently published titles, and more titles by Canadian Authors. Our expanded list of titles includes nominees for the Rocky Mountain Book Award program, the Silver Birch Fiction Award program, the Silver Birch Express Award program and the Youth Choice Award program. This will also aid in encouraging students to vote for these Youth Choice Award Nominees. (A Google Drive Folder with additional information about voting for their favourite books will be shared in the next couple of weeks.)
