

NEWS

The winter cold and snow haven't kept parents and children away from the Rotary Children's Library in Dayton Valley. Over the past few weeks, they've crafted hedgehogs and painted wintry scenes, just to name a few activities. Pictured on this page are the children's (and maybe some parents') works of art.